

6799 Kennedy Road, Unit F, Warrenton, VA 20187
ph 540-347-5001 fax 540-347-5021
www.downeyscott.com

Intern Architect

The ideal candidate will have a passion for Architecture and experience with AutoCad, Revit, BIM, interior design, and basic project management. This is a full time position based in Annandale Virginia and success candidates will possess the following:

- Bachelor of Science in Architecture – this position is ideal for Architecture graduates, who are working on credit hours for the RA (Registered Architect) credentials
- Excellent team member communication and organization skills
- Attention to detail and quality
- Ability to think strategically, plan and problem solve
- Advanced knowledge of AutoCad, Revit, Microsoft Word, Outlook, Microsoft Project and Excel
- Desire for career growth and the ability to grow and become a life- long learner

Responsibilities of this position include:

- Project Management services for small Capital Projects at the Northern Virginia Comm. College (NVCC) Campuses
- Working with AutoCad, Revit and BIM software
- Planning and interiors space planning
- Building and maintaining client and team relationships
- Working with a team of design professionals and supporting the teams goals and objectives
- Participating in continuous professional development programs

We offer a competitive salary and benefits. The firm strongly believes in providing opportunities for both personal and professional growth. To be considered, submit your resume with a brief summary of your qualification and salary requirements.